CHORISTER, PARENT, CHOIR DIRECTOR - PLEASE READ AND SIGN BELOW

The RSCM Training Courses respect the judgment of all participants. Our policies have been established to help ensure safe and enjoyable training courses. The safety of all and the success of the program depend upon the actions of each participant.

Therefore, any RSCM participant whose attitude, conduct or behavior is detrimental to the course or to the reputation of the program, who endangers herself or other members of the group in any way, or who uses alcohol or tobacco, or any non-medical drug during the course, will be dismissed from the course at the discretion of the music director, managers, chaplain, or head proctor. Under such circumstances, all additional transportation, communication, accommodation, or other expenses incurred by the dismissed participant shall be the full responsibility of the participant's parent(s) or legal guardian(s). There is no refund whatsoever for participants who are expelled, regardless of the point at which they are dismissed.

Because this course offers an intensive experience in group living, we recommend that participants display not only a strong interest in singing, but an ability to work and play responsibly as well as to respect their peers and those in authority. We ask that the choirmaster not recommend any chorister whose behavior may potentially be disruptive to this kind of intensive social experience.

1. No use or possession of illegal drugs, alcohol or tobacco products. A chorister found in possession of any of these items will be sent home immediately at the expense of the parents or guardians.
2. Lights out will be strictly enforced. This time is defined as the time for bed – lights off, quiet, going to sleep.
3. Full participation is expected for scheduled activities (rehearsal, liturgies, meals, activities). The first aid staff and Course Managers must approve exceptions.
4. No visitors are allowed during the course. Parents are welcome to attend liturgies but are requested to limit interaction with participants. No one is allowed to visit participants in the dorms at any time.
5. No participants may leave the site of the course.
6. No one under age 25 may drive other course participants during the week.
7. Inappropriate social conduct will not be allowed.
8. Profanity and language not befitting Christian youth will not be allowed.
9. Personal phone calls, incoming and outgoing, will be prohibited. Cell phones must be given to the Head Proctor for the duration of the course or left at home.
10. Adjudication of these rules and any other behavioral issues will be under the jurisdiction of the Course Managers and Head Proctor.

1. In consideration for allowing my child to participate in the Royal School of Church Music Carolina Course for Girls and Adults from July 9-15, 2012, at Saint Mary's School, We/I hereby release The Royal School of Church Music, Carolina Course for Girls and Adults, all employees of the Royal School of Church Music, Carolina Course for Girls and Adults, all course volunteers, Saint Mary's School and employees of Saint Mary's School who participate in the activities of the course (directly related, as well as ancillary thereto) from liability on my behalf and on behalf of my minor child, based on a claim of negligence arising in any way from my child's participation in the course and the activities which take place during the course (i.e. all activities of whatever nature from the time my child leaves my care, custody and control in anticipation to the departure of the course, until the time my child is returned to my care, custody and control after the termination of the course) except to the extent the injury is covered by any insurance procured by the Royal School of Church Music, Carolina Course for Girls and Adults and/or Saint Mary's School which insurance does not allow for subrogation of the claim against the course/school employees or volunteers alleged to have been negligent, or to the extent and amount the injury is specifically covered by insurance providing coverage for the person or persona alleged to have been negligent. This release relates solely to ordinary negligence and does not apply to willful or wanton negligence or intentional misconduct on the part of any employee or volunteer.

Additionally, We/I specifically agree to indemnify and hold harmless The Royal School of Church Music, Carolina Course for Girls and Adults, course employees, course volunteers, Saint Mary's School and any employee who participated in any aspect of the course/school from any loss, damage or demand sustained in any way related to my child's participation in the above designated course whether from their alleged negligence or otherwise, except with respect to the individual employee or volunteer where the loss related to willful or wanton negligence or intentional misconduct of the course/school employee or volunteer. This release and indemnity as to The Royal School of Church Music, Carolina Course for Girls and Adults and Saint Mary's School are absolute to the extent not covered by insurance.

2. I hereby give my authorization and consent for the rendering to my child, by a license physician or physicians, of such medical services and treatment as may become necessary or advisable during the aforementioned period of time, regardless of whether such treatment or services become necessary by reason of an emergency, unanticipated condition or otherwise. Such consent and authorization shall include also the cooperation and assistance of nurses, technicians, assistants, other physicians, and any qualified medical personnel working under the supervision of licensed physicians.

3. I hereby give my authorization and consent for my child accompanying you to and from all authorized off campus RSCM activities from July 9-15, 2012, being subject to your supervision during the term thereof.
